DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-32 have been examined.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-32 are rejected under 35 USC 103(a) as unaparentable over Schutzer(US Pat.No: 6,292,789) in view of Hilt(US Pat. No: 5,465,206) and further in view of Lowery(US Pat. No:6,374,229).
4. As per claims 1-32 Schutzer teaches a method for effectuating electronic bill presentment(Abstract)(Figs 1-32) through at least one biller(Fig 3) over the internet(Fig 2/116) and e-mail containing billing information(Fig 7/152). Hilt teaches banks acting as customer service providers(Abstract)(Figs 4-12) for the payment of bills over a payment network(Fig 7)(Fig 8) as well as a billing database(Fig 4/108). Lowery teaches secure access to a home page on the internet by a browser based technology or thin client technology to access the database server(col 2 lines 49-65).It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to combine Schutzer in view of Hilt and further in view of Lowery to teach applicant's invention. The motivation Schutzer in view of Hilt is to teach an electronic bill presentment and payment system utilizing email notices and which incorporates banks as customer service providers as enunciated by Hilt(col 10 lines 30-62). Furthermore, the motivation to combine Schutzer in view of Hilt and further in view of Lowery is to teach an electronic billing and payment system utilized over the Internet with secure access to the database server as enunciated by Lowery(col 2 line 66-col 3 line 3) which provides an integrated internet billing and data processing communication system for browser based computer subscribers.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claims 1-32 are furthermore rejected under 35 USC 112(2nd) for failing to define and specifically point out what applicant regards is the invention. The claims are too broad to resolve a distinctive novel set of features over the existing art.

Conclusion

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE NON-FINAL.
